

Faculty of Economic Sciences and Management
Information for candidates for PhD studies in economics

Doctoral studies in economics for foreign students (in English)
Documents should be sent to	Aneta Chrzastowska, Nicolaus Copernicus University, Faculty of Economics Sciences and Management, ul. Gagarina 13a, 87-100 Torun, Poland
Phone	+48 56 6114609
e-mail address
www	https://www.econ.umk.pl/en/

Qualification procedure and introductory requirements consist of 4 elements:

No	Element	Maximum score
1.	Extended essay on a research project (8-10 pp) and recommendation from the master's thesis supervisor (or equivalent)	40
2.	English language and motivation (a talk via videoconference)	20
3.	Scientific achievements (papers, publications)	20
4*.	Final result of master studies with the list of courses	20
5.	Total	100

*The applications with the final result of master studies below 75% (or equivalent) will not be considered.

The minimum score for admission after the qualification procedure is 51 points

Costs and other information

Duration of studies:

Duration of studies is 6 semesters (3 years)

Tuition fee and other costs:

Tuition fee is 6500 EUR per year. It includes a study program realization, supervision of PhD thesis, access to library, on-line resources and other University facilities, cost of PhD procedure in Nicolaus Copernicus University in Torun, Poland.

It does not include costs of native speaker language services, conference fees, publication fees and others.

Cost of living in Torun is approximately 450-650 EUR. At the beginning of the first year the grant of 300 EUR is paid to the Doctorate (in PLN).